

SHEPHERD,
SHOW ME HOW TO GO

September 2021

Drawing by Luanne Tucker

Jesus wanted us all to spread “goodness.”

Jesus taught the prayer that answers all our questions and that prayer starts with “Our Father.” It shows us that when we say this prayer we must think of others and know that “goodness” will be caught by all who hear it. Let us learn this and spread this holy prayer:

Our Father which art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come;

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;

*For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen*

We can say this prayer with the great Love of God in our hearts!

excerpt from “Mother’s Evening Prayer”

Beneath the shadow of His mighty wing;

In that sweet secret of the narrow way,

Seeking and finding, with the angels sing:

“Lo, I am with you always,”—watch and pray.

Mary Baker Eddy

“Stand”

“Be still, and know that I am God:”

Psalm 48: 10

Then think peace ...

peace for yourself

and peace for everyone.

Think peace all day long.

Look Who Came to Sunday School

This is a true story about a little love bird named Marley. After he had lived with his family a long time the family got a little puppy. Marley was not used to puppies and he became so upset that he started to pull his feathers out. A wonderful thing happened, a young boy who loved this bird and already was his friend decided to take Marley home with him to take care of him. Both families thought that it was a good idea. Most older birds when they lose their feathers can't grow them back very well but not this time. That bird felt so much love that the feathers grew back lickity split. He is no longer a sad little bird. He is chirping, riding around on his friend's shoulder, loves to explore and has a happy grand life!

But Jesus called them unto him, and said,
Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not:
for of such is the kingdom of God.

Luke 18: 16

excerpt from “Jesus loves me”

by Anna Bartlett Warner (1859)

Jesus loves me, this I know,
for the Bible tells me so.

Jesus loves me, this I know,
as he loved so long ago,
taking children on his knee,
saying, “Let them come to me.”
