Grateful For The Obedience To Learn

The Psalm 91

As a little girl we were made to learn the 91st Psalm. I found it rather long compared to the other two; Psalms 23 and 121. We had to know them all “by heart.” “By heart” is what we called everything we were to know from memory. I appreciate that even more now that we were made to memorize this Psalm because it meant we were to commit it to our hearts. After sometime I did learn it and used it mainly when I went away to boarding school.

When I left home to travel to another country and a new school, I had many challenges. Then I saw how important this Psalm was. I think often about being in the, “Secret place of the most high” and how, “No evil can come nigh our dwelling.” The thought of being where God is, makes us feel so safe and so secure.

As I grew up, and understood more about what God is, I started to be very grateful for the 91st Psalm and so grateful that my parents wanted us to memorize this Psalm to bring us comfort when we were afraid and to assure us of our safety in God. No wonder Mrs. Eddy says in Science and Health on page 228 that, “... nothing inharmonious can enter being, for Life is God.” also in John 8:32 we see where Christ Jesus says, “The truth shall make you free.” All the Truths in this Psalm do make us free when we obey the words of the 91st Psalm!

Thus saith the LORD that created thee,
O Jacob, and he that formed
thee, O Israel, Fear not:
for I have redeemed thee,
I have called thee by thy name;
thou art mine.

Isaiah 43: 1

For the Little Children

God loves you, little children, dear,
And guards you day and night;
You cannot drift beyond His care,
Nor stray beyond His sight.
He is not far off in the skies;
He hears you if you call.
His hand is ever close to yours,
To help you if you fall.
Be sure to know that God is Love
Each night before you sleep;
His angels watching by your side,
Their constant vigil keep.
So rest in slumber, little ones;
God guards the whole night through.
Safe in His arms, you need not fear,
Love watches over you.

Find these words below in the first part of the 91st Psalm:

dwelleth, shadow, Almighty, feathers, trust, shield, angels,

91st Psalm

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Draw a picture of you safe in God's care!
