Psalm 121 is a Favorite Prayer

I am happy to know this psalm is called “the travel Psalm”! It has many important promises and our trust, in God’s promises, makes us turn to this Psalm often.

God is who we look to for help: When we feel troubled in any way we look to Him for help.

He is our keeper: Like a guardian He makes sure we remain the same.

He does not slumber: I like the idea that He does not sleep, just as a great sentinel.

He is our shade: He protects us as an umbrella protects one from the harshness of too much heat.

He preserves our Soul: He maintains us as He made us; as His image and likeness.

He preserves our going out and coming in: He watches and keeps us safe as we go out and as we come in.

What beautiful set of promises that we all need and that should comfort us all.

Florence Roberts

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,

From whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the LORD,

Which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:

He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel

Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD is thy keeper:

The LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,

Nor the moon by night.

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil:

He shall preserve thy soul.

The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in

From this time forth, and even for evermore.

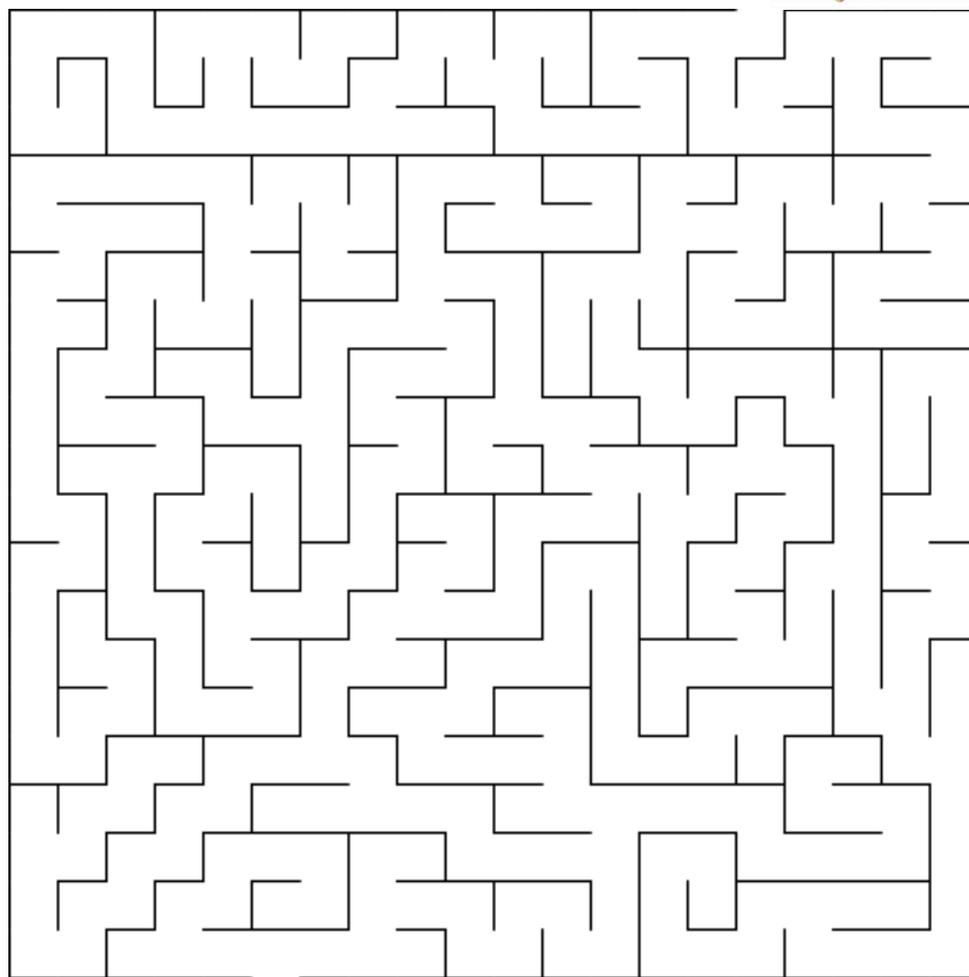

Psalm 121

Mrs. Eddy wrote, "All nature teaches God's love to man." (Science and Health, page 326) You can feel God's Love looking at the sweet picture of Duke the cow and Rex the chicken. This picture is a true story of two hurt animals that became instant and inseparable friends. They teach us the power of love to heal. They met and live on a vegan farm that rescues and helps animals. Rex and Duke show us that when you feel good about yourself around someone, that is a true friend. Mrs. Eddy also wrote, "Pure friendship," brings, "to earth a fore-taste of heaven." (Miscellaneous Writings, page 100) You never know who might be a friend. Christ Jesus, who loved all, showed us that God is our best Friend! God, Love watches over us day and night. So, you are never alone.

"The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in ... for evermore."

Help bird and his friends fly toward the hills.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
My help cometh from the LORD."
